"MAGNA Pharmaceuticals is unique because all of the products which bear our MAGNA logo are products that we have used personally, so we know firsthand that our products are safe and effective. I personally take four products from the MAGNA line daily," says Whitney Schulten, Director of Communication and Business Optimization for MAGNA Pharmaceuticals. The locally owned family business is comprised of people who are committed to providing exceptional products that are dependable, safe, and affordable. They specialize in allergy, cough, and cold products as well as dietary supplements to aid in your overall health and wellbeing. "We are all about accountability," says Whitney. "We provide a personalized touch. When it comes to your health, you need someone that you can trust. That's what MAGNA Pharmaceuticals is all about."
